HELPFUL TIPS

Below are a few helpful tips on reporting a cyber security incident:

- Identify and assess the situation and notify management and other users as appropriate based on your organization's cyber security policy.
- Provide options and recommendations to management on how to respond.
- Contact your local law enforcement if you suspect a crime or cyber incident has been committed.
- Consider notifying your partners with whom you conduct business.
- Identify the types of information that you would want to gather during a cyber security incident.
